

If you have a seed and don't grow it, it stays a seed. If you have a business idea and don't develop it, it stays an idea. Rooted Bulb can help grow your business idea, into a reality, with graphic design to match any business for any occasion.

A great design catches your eye, and pulls you in to find out more. Without the right design, you just move on. Taking the time, investing in your website, case study, print ad, etc, with the precise graphic will always show you a return on your investment.

Did you know you have under :10 seconds to draw someone into your webpage. If they don't like what they see, or can't find what they need, the average person moves on to the next page. NO ONE wants to just get passed by, make sure your website is up to date and functional for your potential clients. Rooted Bulb can help!
